How it works:

Under Kroger's system, loyalty card shoppers sign up online and choose a favorite charity from a list of local nonprofits that Kroger has agreed to help fund.

Kroger then tracks all the card holder's purchases (excluding alcohol, tobacco and gasoline), with every dollar counting as a vote for the shopper's preferred organization.

At the end of each quarter, Kroger totals up dollars spent by enrolled customers and distributes money to nonprofits proportionately.

Shoppers don't sacrifice any in-store discounts or gas points they earn on their Kroger card; the charitable component is a separate, extra feature.
